To whom it may concerned

I am writing this very email to express my opinion on the consultation paper on parody. The government should NOT change the current law on copyright, intellectual property rights and any related areas. The current law is good enough, sufficient, and effective to protect owners of intellectual property in Hong Kong. Thus, any changes to the current law will undoubtedly infringe and grossly annihilate the priceless freedoms of press, of speech and of expression that make Hong Kong a thriving city in the world.

It is shockingly and astonishingly unacceptable, unbelievable, and disgraceful that Hong Kong government is spending any time, effort, and taxpayers' money to eradicate free press and speech in Hong Kong by attempting to impose ANY control over parody rather than utilising its resources on building more hospitals or even subsidising the life-saving expensive medication to patients. I beg the Bureau to oppose the government or the legislature to impose any regulations on parody or make any changes to the current law.

Please have mercy on Hong Kong and do not destroy Hong Kong or ever stop us from prospering. I beg you, Hong Kong government!

Yours very faithfully
Larry Li
